

Sermon Guide – October 22, 2023

Read Exodus 32-34 to be reminded of the Ten Commandments, the breaking of the Tablets, and the episode with the golden calf.

What intrigues you about these chapters? Think about the situation from Aaron's point of view, from Moses' point of view, and God's point of view.

Consider the conversation between Moses and God as one between good, good friends. What stands out to you about the conversation?

What do you think about Pastor Cindy's comment that Moses was looking for Jesus centuries before his time?

How do you define "goodness," as in God's goodness? What about "glory?"

How do you exhibit God's glory?
