

September 17, 2023 – CONNECT – Week 5 -- WITNESS

The dictionary defines “witness” as “having personal knowledge of something and giving testimony to it.” Thus, one is an observer of an event and then can tell others what one has seen or heard. What does it mean to you to be a “WITNESS”? Have you ever been called to be a witness in court or to tell what you have seen to an authority figure?

How can we be witnesses to our Christian faith?

Read John 1:35-51. What appears to be Jesus’ model for evangelism and WITNESS?

What would it take for us to recover a Wesleyan passion for sharing the love of God in Christ with people outside the walls of the church?
